We need a positive approach in addressing our problems and maximizing our town's opportunities. I was raised in Lincoln City, and although I'm young, I have had successful experience as a community organizer. It has proven to me that we can all work together to affect beneficial change.

As a community we need to celebrate our commonality and work together towards shared goals and not tear our community apart by seeing only our differences. A "winner takes all" philosophy will ultimately lose the day.

I'm anxious to work with the other councilors and I hope to provide energy and new ideas. I respectfully ask for your vote this September.
