

PROPERTY TAX PUBLIC ACCESS WEBSITE HOW-TO GUIDE

You can get property tax and assessment information online at our Property Tax Public Access page at the following web address:

Propertyweb.co.lincoln.or.us

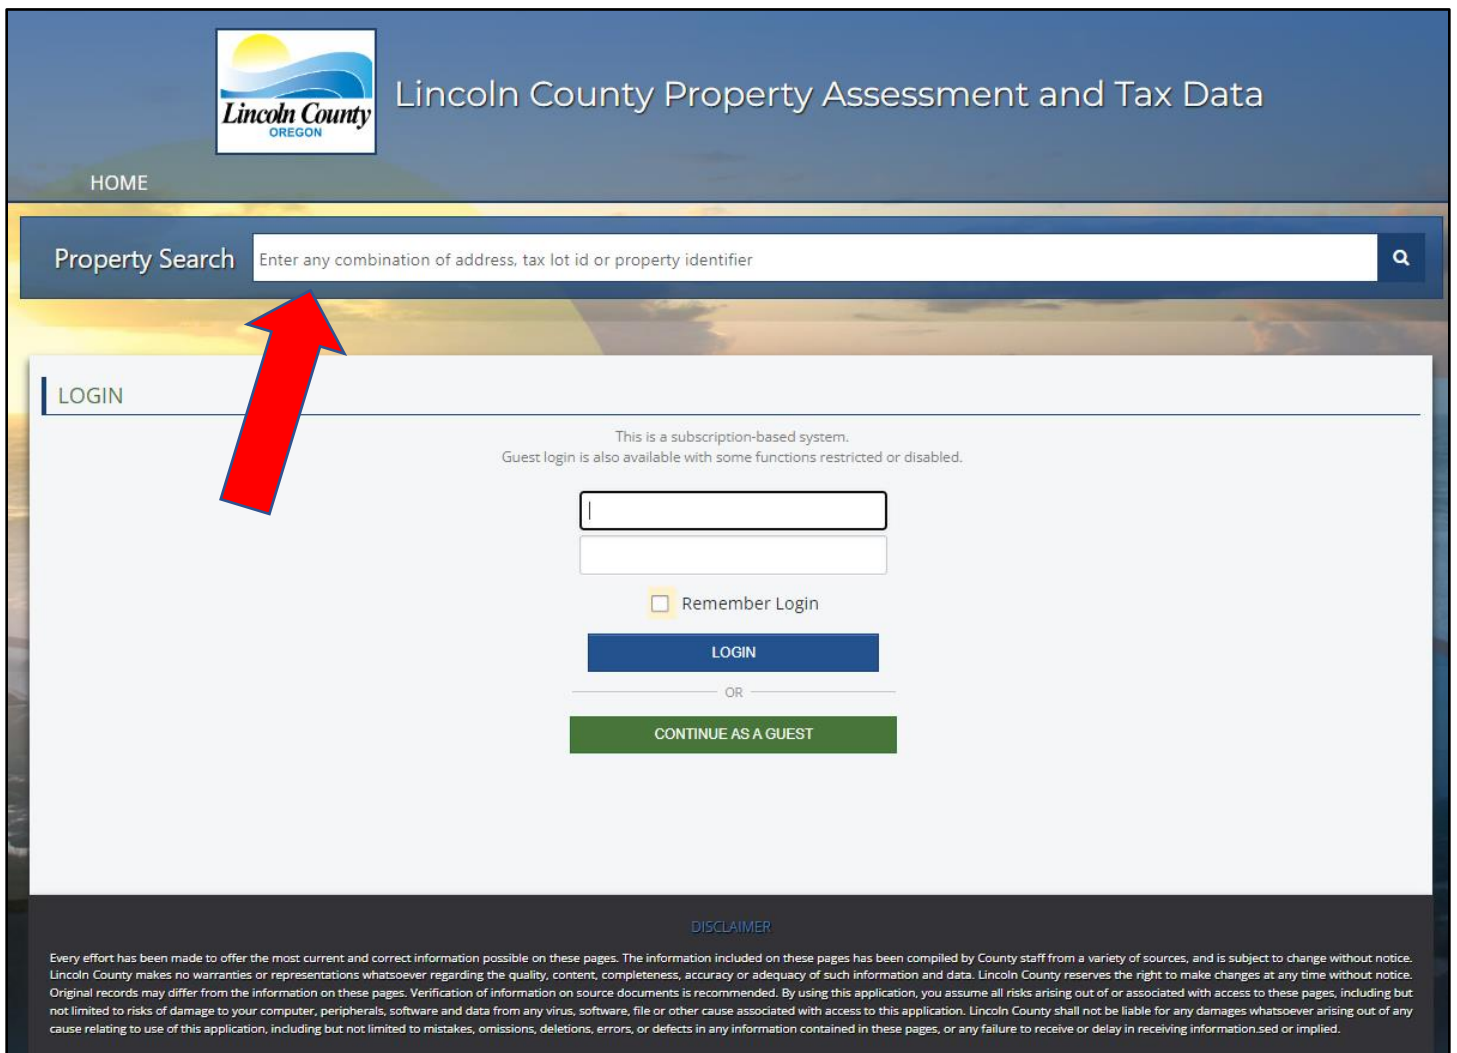

The website will look like this:

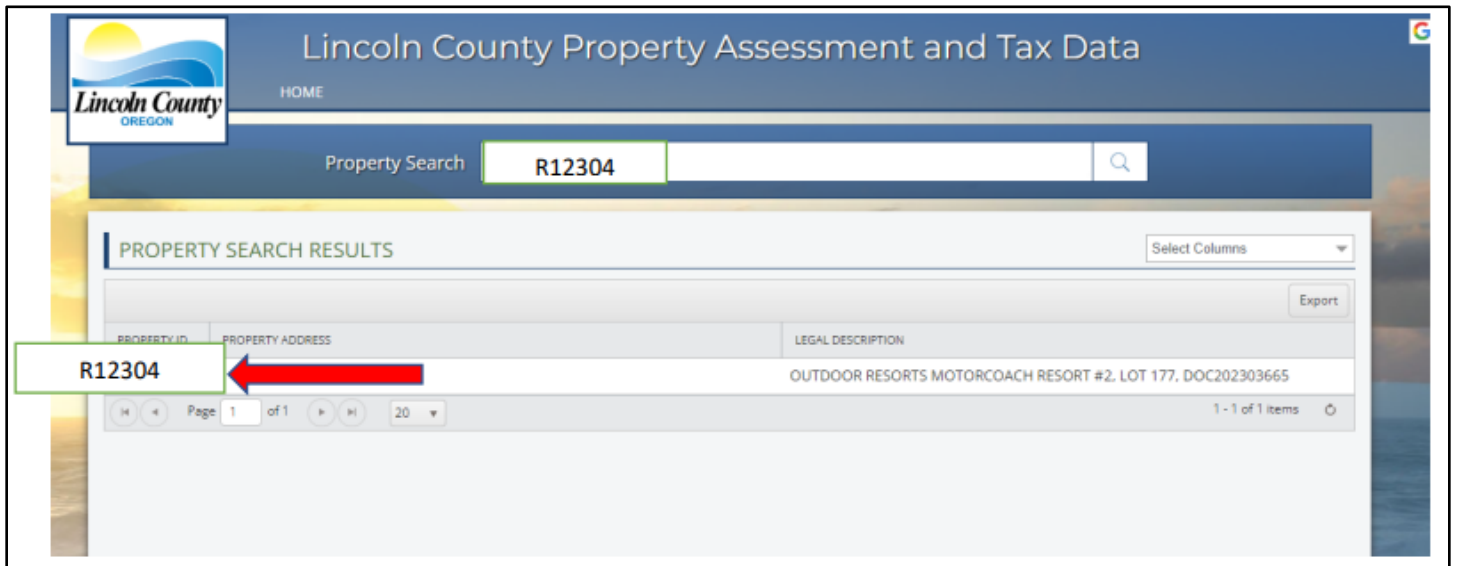

On this website, you can find tax statements, payment history, receipts, value information, sales history, and access to the payment portal.

You do not have to Login or Continue as Guest

You can immediately begin searching by entering your account number or situs address in the “Property Search” bar at the top of the page and pressing enter.

A search result will pop up that looks like the following:

When the property you're searching for appears in the results bar, click on that result and you will be taken to a page with several clickable tabs:

- Details
 - This tab will provide assessment and property information.
- Bills
 - This tab will provide property tax statements, current balances due and a link to our payment portal.
- Payment History
 - This tab shows payments previously made on the account and provides copies of receipts.
